Arts in the Alley: Walks of Life A Journey Through Time, Told Through Art

Step into the heart of Tanjong Pagar, where every alley tells a story, and every shophouse holds a memory. From its roots as a bustling maritime hub in the late 19th century to its lively present as a hotspot of culture, nightlife, and creativity, this district has seen the footsteps of countless lives—traders, dockworkers, artists, dreamers.

In our fast-paced city, we walk with purpose—but how often do we truly look? We pass by doorways weathered by time, corners rich with memory, people moving in rhythm with their own stories.

Yet rarely do we pause. Rarely do we notice.
When was the last time you stood still—just long enough to feel the heartbeat of a place?

This August, as we celebrate SG60, “Arts in the Alley: Walks of Life” invites you to slow down and rediscover this iconic neighbourhood through a fresh lens.

★ Where history meets art — Walk the same five-foot ways that once buzzed with traders and coolies, now reimaged through theatre, poetry, food experiences, and art installations.

★ Take a different kind of walk. One that encourages you to linger. To listen. To see the people, places, and histories that often go unnoticed in the rush of daily life. Whether you're a long-time local or a curious visitor, this is your invitation to walk through history, creativity, and community—all in one journey.

📍 Start Point: Ann Siang House
📍 Main Installation & Activities: 21 Tanjong Pagar Road
📍 End Point: Kesa House
